Dearest Rob:

Les Figs Press is gearing up for our third annual GIVE A FIG Benefit Auction, to be held on Saturday, September 12, 2009 at the amazing Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibits (LACE) in Hollywood. The theme is "READYMADE," with emcees Matias Viegner and Anna Joy Springer. The event will be in the middle of LACE's current exhibit: Fallen Fruit's, United Fruit. (<http://www.artleak.org/current.html>)

We would love to include a donation by you.

We want this year's event to be filled with art and oddities, especially hand-made items, personalized services, and gift certificates from independent businesses. We're looking for that which already is: artwork you made last year that's sitting in a drawer, a page from your junior high journal collaged (or not) into something else, a signed copy of your most recent book, somebody else's poem that you copied, or copied over. Let's reuse the readymade, and make it into something else.

We're already beginning to get some fabulous items in—like a sketch from Lynda Barry, as she was trying to figure out the right cover for /100 Demons/. There's also artwork by Stephanie Taylor, Fallen Fruit, Alex Forman, Candice Lin and more. Take a peek here: <http://www.lesfigs.com/lfp/54/upcoming-events>

As you know, Les Figs publishes the feminist, the smart, the scientifically-sound and the unreasonably beautiful. The "Give A Fig" auction is our biggest fundraising event of the year, helping us to continue doing what we do best. The "Give A Fig" auction is also a fabulous party; all donors will receive one complimentary ticket to the event. What's more, your donation is tax-deductible and will be acknowledged in the auction program, and on our blog at www.lesfigures.blogspot.com.

Please think about what you can donate, and let me know by Aug 3, 2009.

Thanks, and thanks for supporting Les Figures.

Warmly,

Teresa Carmody

BY HITCHHIKING

As told by "The Legendary Rob" TRAVEL ADVICE:

*Take the subway to 242nd St & Van Cortlandt Park up in the Bronx (not as scary is it sounds HONEST! + the Burger King across the street has Dr. Pepper, a rarity in New York-$1.50). Then take the bee-line Westchester bus to 'Tarrytown' -$1.10. Get off by the "Tappan Zee" bridge—near a Shell station and an EDWARDS Supermarket. Stand where the sidewalk end—it might take a while but you will eventually get a ride, try to get at least to Saugerties because it has a northbound ONLY entry before the toll booth, or go service plaza to service plaza if you can... You MIGHT get booted off the plaza on the I-90 portion of the thru way, then again YOU MIGHT NOT, it's up to the cop...TAKE a CHANCE...YOU are always alright behind tollbooths but some places you might be there forever. THE thruway is "FREE" thru Buffalo and Albany-Buffalo mass transit goes to good spots before the toll plazas in both directions... Plus, they go to Niagara Falls so you don't hafta hitch there...NOW THIS IS HELPFUL: At the junction of I-90 & I-87 on the thruway is a "CARPOOL waiting structure" that looks like a bus shelter next to a bank of telephones. (ALL TRAFFIC HAS TO GO THRU HERE!) Make a sign that says "WEST or SOUTH" and you should catch out pretty quick + you have a valid defense should the cops dick w / you. "Well if I can't stand here, why is this structure here?" A neat place w / good rich ice cream and REAL chili (tho they call it hotdog sauce)—STEWART'S shops. They are situated at key exits... The Mobil station on the south side of Plattsburgh (near Canada) has showers available, and the Mobil station on I-87 3 miles north of I-90 has friendly folks. It is illegal to walk on the freeway in Montreal but once again in the rural areas limited french comes in handy. You can take the bus across MTL to Edgepoints but it's hard to figure what's where because the maps aren't superimposed w / hiways so you may just want to walk along 'til you feel comfortable—this is reasonably easy, A good westbound exit is near the 'Hippodrome'.*
